DAY 3: MAHABALIPURAM – PONDICHERRY

You will be going to Pondicherry today. It is a total contrast to what you have seen so far. Pondicherry is a small coastal town with French colonial buildings. The ambience is very Mediterranean. You will be able to walk around in the quaint little streets written and named in French. You will see old buildings with columns, arches. You can sit at a café and read a book or walk along the seafront. (Going with the tone of this Tamil Nadu and Kerala luxury tour, we recommend staying in one of the finest hotels in Pondicherry.)

Hotel: Palais De Mahe

Visits: Orientation tour by Rickshaw before discovering more on foot.

DAY 4: PONDICHERRY – GANGAICONDACHOLAPURAM – DARASURAM – TANJORE

Leaving from Pondicherry for Tanjore is one of the richest days in your entire Tamil Nadu and Kerala holidays. You will be visiting three different monuments that will show you the true nature of Dravidian history and architectural prowess. Two of these are UNESCO World Heritage sites. You will be at the heart of 800 – 1100 year old Dravidian architecture and pre-medieval South Indian culture.

Visits: Gangaicondacholapuram and Aryavastravar. (UNESCO World Heritage Site)

DAY 5: TANJORE – (TRICHY) SRIRANGAM – TANJORE

Today you will be going for an extraordinary excursion to the city of Trichy to visit the Srirangam Temple. As you approach Srirangam, you will be astonished at the sight of the world's tallest Gopuram, the Temple Gateway. This is considered to be the world's largest functioning Hindu temple. Buy a ticket to climb to the roof. You will be stunned by the immensity of the temple where you can see seventeen of the twenty one Gopurams at one go all around you. This is another high point in Tamil Nadu of your holiday in Kerala and Tamil Nadu.

In the afternoon temple view the splendid bronzes of the Chola period and the majestic Tanjore temple with the setting sun. Remember to visit the living elephant god that blesses people.

(To best enjoy your luxury Kerala holidays, we organise your stay at the wonderful hotel in Tanjore.)

Hotel: Svatma

Visits: Srirangam, Tanjore Bronze gallery, UNESCO World Heritage Tanjore Temple.

DAY 6: TANJORE – CHETTINAD

Just like the merchant class in Rajasthan, Chettinad is the region of the merchant class in South India known as the Chettiyars. They had a flourishing trade in the region and with the countries of South Asia. You can see the prosperity of this region in the palatial mansions, the intricately carved teakwood pillars, the floors made of beautiful locally made Arthangudi tiles and of course the laid back style of the folks here that typify luxury and affluence.

Hotel: Visalam

Visits: School visit subject to holidays. Visit of Chettinad Mansions and special Chettinad tile making.

DAY 7: CHETTINAD – MADURAI

If you have seen magnificent Dravidian architecture dating back more than a millennium, Madurai is the soul of all of what you saw today. Madurai is the soul of Tamil Nadu. Here you will experience the vibrant devotional aspect of Hinduism in the heart of the Meenakshi Temple. This would be your last temple visit in your Tamil Nadu and Kerala luxury tour.

Hotel: Taj Pasumulai

Visits: Gandhi Museum, Meenakshi Temple.

DAY 8: MADURAI – PERIYAR

Today you will be quitting Tamil Nadu and this is where you enter Kerala and your Kerala luxury tour begins to take final shape. Your holiday in Kerala has just begun. You will be driving up to the hills that are called the Western Ghats. You will be entering the green zone that is part of rich bio-diversity of Kerala.

We will check you into a hotel that is a pioneer in eco-tourism in the world and while you live there, you will understand why. The variety of trees, the number of birds that you will see around you, the organic vegetable garden that you can choose your meals from are just some of the bright aspects of the resort.

Hotel: Spice Village

Visits: Spice Plantations.

DAY 9: PERIYAR

A day at leisure at a great destination where you have a choice of opting for the kind of activities that suit you: trekking in the forest, trekking with bamboo rafting, bullock cart ride through the villages, relaxation with Ayurvedic massage. Periyar is a place where you will not only enjoy your stay but it will make you healthier too.

DAY 10: PERIYAR – KUMARAKOM

Breathe in the fresh air. Feast your eyes on the greenery around you. Drive your way through spice, coffee and tea plantations. You will be going to one of the biggest lakes in the India, the Wembanad Lake. This is a continuation of the bio-diversity hotspot from Periyar. Life and vegetation along the banks of the lagoon is simply stunning. Your resort will be right on the banks of the Lake and you will have a stunning view of sunset for as long as you wish to stay.

Hotel: Coconut Lagoon

Visits: Beautiful photo stops en route.

DAY 11: KUMARAKOM

These are moments of enjoying what is a true Kerala luxury tour. No wakeup call. Spend a leisurely morning next to the lake. Have a sumptuous breakfast. Later in the day go to the jetty to board the typical Kerala rice boat converted to a Houseboat that is waiting exclusively for you for your cruise on the backwaters. Another luxurious experience of moving on the water highways of this region enjoying the view of the varied vegetation, the life on the banks of the lake, the fisheries till you get hungry. And then you served your meal on board. You can then rock off to your afternoon siesta on the sunbathed docks. Later you are served tea and cookies. As sun begins to go down, you will be brought back to your jetty. A truly satisfying day of luxurious enjoyment.

Hotel: Coconut Lagoon

Visits: Houseboat cruise

DAY 12: KUMARAKOM – COCHIN

Leaving your green haven, we will be taking you back to civilisation, to For Cochin. Fort Cochin has a historical charm that you will find nowhere else in Kerala. It used to be the colonial hub of sailors landing here 5 centuries ago. The activity was so intense; you can still feel the same vibrancy as you walk along discovering the old arches and buildings, the harbour area, the Chinese fishing nets at dusk. And in the evening, we will take you for an authentic spectacle of a Kerala classical dance form, Kathakali which will leave you spellbound with its intricate makeup and fantastic performance.
